One Way Out

Rob Rock

Liar, selling you lies from the start
Deceiver, feeding on you like a shark
See it coming, feel it breaking you down
Time is running, wasting away for so longThere's only one way out
Tear down the walls that cover your mind
One way out
Open your eyes to the liesSeeker, you search for the meaning of life
Changes, waiting for you to ignite
See it coming, feel it burning your soul
Tide is turning, leaving you out in the coldThere's only one way out
Tear down the walls and open your mind
One way out
Leave all this mayhem behind
