Rashida

Paveier

I got the outfit for the party but you?ve taken away the invitation
And I?d like to thank you Rashida for doing this
And giving me a reason to write a song
I guess I?ll have to go a begging for that Vanity Fair connection
And I?d like to thank you Rashida

It?s been a while since I have gone a begging
So very very long
I finally saw you at the party in a dress that was well, quite stunning
And I?d like to thank you Rashida
For giving me a reason to call Miss Portman
And to write this song
