Crazy 'bout You

Vanessa Williams

Ooo ooh
Crazy about you, baby
Tu ru ru ru
Someone asked me about you
Asked me if this was love, are we serious?
I kindly replied that I loved you
Don't know if I should be falling again
There's a part of me, still in misery
Though I know I got to move on
I'm scared of commitment
I'm scared of what could go wrong
'Cause if I love again, I could lose again
There's a chance that my heart could break
Hate to be wrong again
Baby, 'cause I'm crazy about you
If I hurt again and I cry again
That's a chance that I'm gonna take
I can't be wrong again
Baby, 'cause I'm crazy about you
It's gonna take me just a moment
To take this all the way, it feels kind of strange
So, what could you do to assure me
That you won't go astray baby and hurt me some day?
So no promises, don't want roses
I've already heard every lie
And I ain't in no hurry
And I hope you're not wastin' my time
'Cause if I love again, I could lose again
There's a chance that my heart could break
Hate to be wrong again
Ooh baby, 'cause I'm crazy about you
If I hurt again and I cry again
That's the chance that I'm gonna take
I can't be wrong again
Ooh baby, 'cause I'm crazy about you
Oh, starting over
Takes me under
(Baby, I need you)
I need your shoulder

When I can't bear this pain
I need your love now
(I need your love now)
To help me make it right
I don't need no one baby
(Don't need no one baby)
Runnin' in and out of my life
'Cause if I love again, I could lose again
There's a chance that my heart could break
(There's a chance that my heart could break)
Hate to be wrong again
Ooh baby, 'cause I'm crazy about you
If I hurt again and I cry again
(If I hurt again and I cry again)
That's the chance that I'm gonna take
(That's the chance that I'm gonna take)
I can't be wrong again
Ooh baby, 'cause I'm crazy about you
And if I love again I can lose again
That's a chance that I'm gonna take
I can't be wrong again
Baby, 'cause I'm crazy about you
