

Stay Where You Are

The Ettes

There was a time
When I would have jumped at
    Anything you said
But you took too long
    To pay attention
Now that dog is deadToo late, too late
    Old as the moon and stars
    Too late, too late
Stay right where you areYou're the pebble in my shoe
    I tell ya
    You won't just let me be
    So I just hide
    And watch your face
    While you're lookin' for me
