Let Me Know

Travis Garland

I cant read your mind
I need you to say it

Plain and simple I would give my life to you
Everything you needed baby I would be it
You're the only one I talked to
Who really knows me tells me shows me
That its enough sometimes just to be myself

But I dont want nobody else they dont understand
That I gave away my heart the moment that I shook your hand
You took my breath away buy me anything I ask
Go anywhere I wanna go I'd trade in everything just to know

Let me know you love me let me know you care
Let me know you're thinking of me when I cant be there
Let me know you miss me call me up sometimes
I dont wanna go but boy you gotta let me know

Gotta let me know said you gotta let me know

Stop and listen its my thoughts calling your name
Screaming out the way I feel I wish you would do the same
We might be on the same book same line same page
But Im tired and your silence brings the water to my eyes

But I dont want nobody else they dont understand
That I gave away my heart the moment that I shook your hand
You left me in the dark put this white over my eyes
And if you dont feel the same is everything we have a lie

Let me know you love me let me know you care
Let me know you're thinking of me when I cant be there
Let me know you miss me call me up sometimes
I dont wanna go but boy you gotta let me know

Please give me reason to stay gotta get us back on track
Cause the worse thing is loving someone who doesnt love you back
I think you do but I need you to say it

Need yea yeah

I cant read your mind
(Tell me from time to time)
I need you to say it
(Need you to tell me)
I cant read your mind
(Tell me from time to time)
I need you to say it
(Need you to tell me)

Let me know you love me let me know you care
Let me know you're thinking of me when I cant be there
Let me know you miss me call me up sometimes
I dont wanna go but boy you gotta let me know

Gotta let me know said you gotta let me know

Let me know you love me let me know you care
