In Your Eyes

Aaron Neville

I can see it in your eyes
You're telling me a lie
When you said you loved me
And there's something in your smile
Said you'd be gone in awhile
So, how can you love me?I can hear it in your talk
You're about to take a walk
So, darling please don't lie
I've been knowing you way too long
So, don't say there's nothing wrong
You could never fool me, know howI can see it in your eyes
What you're trying to discuss
I can feel it in your touch
You've fallen out of love
You could tell me that I'm wrong
My heart knows I'm right
I can see it in your eyesSo, if it's over, let it be over
I'd rather face the truth
Than have to make believe
Your feelings haven't changed
Yes, I'll be all right
After you say good bye
And I know that I'll be missing you
For a long long timeI can see it in your eyes
What you're trying to discuss
I can feel it in your touch
You've fallen out of love
You could tell me that I'm wrong
My heart knows I'm right
I can see it in your eyesYou could tell me that I'm wrong
My heart knows I'm right
I can see it in your eyes
