All Your Reasons

Jake Bugg

Got all of your reasons
And all of them's been used
Read a lot about it
You can read up in the newsThere's a lot of hungry faces
There's a lot of pain out there
Oh anyway
It's been a long long day
Oh anywayDidn't disappoint you
Didn't want to make you sad
Given all the choices
Good's given from the badThere's a lot I need to tell you
There's a lot you should know
Oh anyway
It's been a long long daySo if I keep myself from moving on
Oh angel angel, angel will fly
'Cause it's my heart's desire to set the world on fire
Oh angel angel, angel will fly to the moonSummer's almost gone
And I'll be singing all the songsI've heard all the excuses
And all have been refused
I've read a lot about you
You can read up in the newsThere's a lot of fairy tales while
It's a cold world outside
Oh anyway, it's gonna stay that way
So if I keep myself from moving on
Oh angel angel, angel will fly
'Cause it's my heart's desire to set the world on fire
Oh angel angel, angel will fly to the moon
