

Here

Michaela Laws

One place, one place, where I stand...

One life, one life in my hand...

In the end, Here I am...

My hearts a tainted mess, choking me deep inside,

The rain will fall again, no one will hear me cry

What kind of flowers will guide me through the world I'm in?

To see the sunlight, you can't give up or give in

I just want to believe

But I can not believe

All of the pain, hidden away

Deep in my heart

Cries out for me, won't let me breathe, tears me apart!

But a voice calls to me:

"Come and I will set you free!"

One day I'll see eternity rise with the sun!

I'm not afraid! I will be brave! we can be one!

One place, one place where I stand...

One life, one life in my hand...

In the end, Here I am...
