

Haunt Me

Olivia Jean

Why do you haunt me?
Why do you haunt me still?
Give me an answer Why do you haunt me?
Why do you haunt me still?
Give me an answer
So I can free my will
Around every corner
I claim your aim to kill
Why do you haunt me?
Why do you haunt me still? I took all the blame when your heart
Turned rotten
Been beating that dead horse far too long
Whenever I catch my breath or half forgotten
There's one more attack to hold me back
From moving on Why do you haunt me?
Why do you haunt me still?
Give me an answer
So I can free my will
Round every corner
I claim your aim to kill
Why do you haunt me?
Why do you haunt me still? When you're finally ready
To let go of me
I will be willing to admit you've won
If you want to fight sin with sin
One lie won't hurt me
As long as it fixes the damage done Why do you haunt me?
Why do you haunt me still?
Give me an answer
So I can free my will
Round every corner
I claim your aim to kill
Why do you haunt me?
Why do you haunt me still?
