Drag Down

Sebadoh

Its what they call switching lanes
In the left hand driving in the right hand driving
And it all seems the sameI cant get enough and you cant set it up
A big omission and a thin disguise, ooh
And I was hoping for a nice surpriseDown on my knees
I was saying it and you wouldnt listen
And it all cant go on
I was getting higher; I was trying hardOh, drag me down
I need it
Oh, drag me downThose suspicions are a waste of time, ooh
And I was hoping for a nice surprise
Feed our trouble well
Learn to feel, I can learn to feel, I can hate itOh, drag me downThose suspicions are a waste of time, ooh
And I was hoping for a nice surprise
