

The Life and Death of Mr Badmouth

PJ Harvey

Baby, you got a bad bad mouth
Everything is poison that's coming out
Cheating, lying since the day you were born Someone outta rinse it out with soap Wash it out, wash it out, wash it out No kind words are coming out of your mouth
Plenty goes in but nothing good comes out
Badmouth, sad mouth, you were an unhappy child
That doesn't make your lying tongue alright Wash it out, wash it out, wash it out 'cause everything is poison
You'll be the unhappy one
Your lips taste of poison
You're gonna be left alone When you told me every word you said
Came from voices talking in your head
Baby, I just think you're out for what you can get Your badmouth has killed off everything we had Wash it out, wash it out, wash it out 'cause everything is poison
You'll be the unhappy one
Your lips taste of poison
You'll be in the corner crying
