Misinformed

Soul Coughing

His eyes go funny, you can't place why
All dolled up in bellhop dragIt is like a burden to the beat to the long gone
It is like a burden to the beat to the long gone
It is like a burden to the beat to the long gone
It is like a burden to the beat to the long goneI was once misinformed about your intentions
I was once misinformed about your intentionsWere you right to burn the rock star?
Were you right to drop the roster?It is like a burden to the beat to the long gone
It is like a burden to the beat to the long gone
It is like a burden to the beat to the long gone
It is like a burden to the beat to the long goneI was once misinformed about your intentions
I was once misinformed about your intentions
I was once misinformed about your intentions
I was once misinformed about your intentionsOne dollar bill, one dollar bill, one dollar bill
Nah nah nah
