In the Name

Jennifer Knapp

All these years to many ahead to think clear
Some say where's my crystal ball
Some men play the lottery
Makin' bets against the governments economy
They say I'd rather be rich than be alive at allWhen men in miry circumstances fall
It won't be hard to tell where they placed their resolveSome trust in chariots
But we trust in the name of the Lord, our God
To each His own won't lead you home
And probably never willI won't trust in the things I do
They will not stand, they won't come through
So I'll trust in the name of the Lord, my God
I'll trust in the name [unverified]Picket fences may build our defense
In domestic wars of leisure suits
That's okay, it doesn't bother me
You can hold onto your philosophy
Of what's mine is mine, what's yours is yours
But whats the truth?When the walls do crumble and they fall
It won't be hard to tell where we place our resolveSome trust in chariots
But we trust in the name of the Lord, our God
To each His own won't lead you home
And probably never willI won't trust in the things I do
They will not stand, they won't come through
So I'll trust in the name of the Lord, my God
I'll trust in the name[unverified]When the walls do crumble
And what will I find to hold on to [unverified]
That's stronger than my Jesus
Sing Hallelujah [unverified], Hallelujah [unverified]
When the walls do crumble and they fall
It won't be hard to see where we place our resolve [unverified]Some trust in chariots
But we trust in the name of the Lord, our God
To each His own won't lead you home
And probably never willI won't trust in the things I do
They will not stand, they won't come through
So I'll trust in the name of the Lord, my God
I'll trust in the name[unverified]
