

Matador (Da Capo)

Gaz Coombes

When it falls apart in the avalanche
The heroes fate is played out before the crowd
They want blood and they want your heart and soul
But the hardest fight is the one you fight alone. So hold out, I won't stop
I have these dreams I'm under a waterfall. I'll take all the pain and the scars of war
'Cos I'll face the Beast and fight like a matador.
