

Broadway Baby

Bernadette Peters

Im just a broadway baby working off my tired feet pounding forty-second street to be in a show

broadway baby
a learning how to sing and dance

a waiting that one big chance
to be in a show

Gee,
id like to be
on some marquee
all twinkling lights

a spark,
to pierce the dark
from battery park
to washington heights

some day maybe
all my dreams will be re-paid
heck,
id even play the maid
to be in a show

hey,
a mister producer
im talking to you sir

i dont need a lot
only what i got
plus a tube or greese-paint and a follow spot

im just a broadway baby
slaving at the 5 and 10 wait fir that great day when ill be ina show

broadway baby
eating at a greese spoon to save all my dough

wait that one big chance
to be in a show

at my flat theres just my cat a bed and a chair

still ill stick it till im working for a nice man like a ziegfield or a wissman in a great big broadway show!

Lyrics submitted by hey.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnlyrics.com/>