Remembered You

Princess Rizu

Cloudy, hazy,
Foggy memories
Try to grasp but
They slip from me
Glimpses into
Histories of me
Flicker softly,
Mind grows weary

But through the murky blue
I remembered you
Broken thought askew
I remembered you

For so long I've
Wandered blindly
Searching for
My unknown something
Family is a
Puzzling notion
Crossing memories
Crossing oceans

But through the murky blue
I remembered you
Love is how I knew
That I'd remember you
