After The Omen

Cecilio & Kapono

Went to the movie last night was about those demons screaming eerie cries It gave me goosebumps up and down my spineChorus:
I had to open up my eyes
and when they turned on the lights
I had to make sure
I was alright
Last nightI couldn't sleep last night
I woke up screamin' in and awful fright
You know my dream was a nightmare in disguiseChorus:
I had to open up my eyes
and when they turned on the lights
I had to make sure
I was alright
Last night
Woke up this morning still alive
I thanks the Lord that he got me through this fright can't let a movie get you in the night
