

Necromanteion Communion

Acheron

Breathe deeply, clear your head
Leave the world behind you
Undead gods, they await
So enter the chamber
Sit right down and gaze
Into the magick mirror
Your body, it feels

All the stored life force
Necromanteion communion, a vampiric rite
Necromanteion communion, the immortal sight
Necromanteion communion, beyond thoughts of time
Necromanteion communion, for the royal bloodline
Necromanteion communion, enlightenment from beyond
Necromanteion communion, sacred night side bond
Necromanteion communion, on an astral plane

Necromanteion communion, those who have risen again
See the patterns of dark and light
The dreamlike images begin
Time to use vampiric eyes
To go even further
Remain calm, open the gate
Sense the manifestation
Sacrifice the life force

Now embrace the calling
Necromanteion communion, a vampiric rite
Necromanteion communion, the immortal sight
Necromanteion communion, beyond thoughts of time
Necromanteion communion, for the royal bloodline
Necromanteion communion, enlightenment from beyond
Necromanteion communion, sacred night side bond
Necromanteion communion, on an astral plane
Necromanteion communion, those who have risen again
