Weekend Away

Tunng

I gotta go gotta get away just for the weekend And when I go leave the shit behind just for the weekend I've gotta go cos I just can't stay just for the weekend And may be then something good I'll find just for the weekend Now you're so fallin in love, you're so falling alone You've gone and run in the wrong direction [x 2] There's not a smile that I'll have to fake just for the weekend I don't care this is not my problem There's not a lot that I'll have to take just for the weekend And maybe then find some peice of mind just for the weekend And when I go leave the shit behind just for the weekend You've gone and run in the wrong direction [x 2] I don't care this is not the real thing Now you're so fallin in love, you're so falling alone Wipe myself with my soggy sleave [x 4] What's forever when I leave
