

He Ain't Goin' Nowhere (feat. Iggy Azalea)

Jennifer Hudson

He ain't goin' nowhere You should listen to the shit your boyfriend says

Searched high and low inside his dirty mind,

Then concentrate on making his heart race

Find your treasure, make it last forever now Get what you want in more pleasure

Leave no one y'all come together

Whisper in his ear it makes it hotter

And don't wipe off sweat it makes it better

Get him whatever he wants,

Don't hit him with questions

Ask my other girls

Trust me girl don't stress him He ain't movin', ah he ain't goin' nowhere

He ain't movin', ah he ain't goin' nowhere

He ain't movin', ah he ain't goin' nowhere

He ain't movin', ah he ain't goin' nowhere There's so much to learn from what your boyfriend says

Take advantage when he thinks you're not listening

And ? In tune with his pleasure triggers

Love that he will backfire, that's your mission Get what you want in more pleasure

Leave no one y'all come together

Whisper in his ear it makes it hotter

And don't wipe off sweat it makes it better

Get him whatever he wants,

Don't hit him with questions

Ask my other girls

Trust me girl don't stress him He ain't movin', ah he ain't goin' nowhere

He ain't movin', ah he ain't goin' nowhere

He ain't movin', ah he ain't goin' nowhere

He ain't movin', ah he ain't goin' nowhere What you know 'bout blowing 'bout twenty racks

Ain't worried 'bout coming back, if you're going now

Got him wrapped by my fingertips

I'm rock hard every time that he can't get his up

Make him wanna change it up

And I only feel forgiven if changes us ?

Bonnie and Clyde never strange to us

'Cause what's like if you never live dangerous?

And when it ain't much left and we get it right

And since love is a drug you won't get it light

I never been the kinda tug in a kitten animal

That take you wild until you go and get a sit her tight

Get it like this like that and all you want

Boy ain't tryina hear it when you're talking front
See I know your weak spots, so I always go there
And I bet that's the reason he's going nowhere, like uh (na girl, I told you)
(Girl he ain't goin' nowhere)Get what you want in more pleasure
Leave no one y'all come together
Whisper in his ear it makes it hotter
And don't wipe off sweat it makes it better
Get him whatever he wants
Don't hit him with questions
Ask my other girls
Trust me girl don't stress himHe ain't movin', ah he ain't goin' nowhere
He ain't movin', ah he ain't goin' nowhere
He ain't movin', ah he ain't goin' nowhere
He ain't movin', ah he ain't goin' nowhere
