

Hatesong (live)

Porcupine Tree

This is a hate song just meant for you I thought that I'd write it down while I still could I hope when you hear this you'll want to sue Oh it's a lonely life in my empty bed And it's a quiet life that leaks from my head These are the last rites The line is dead
Yes, I'm hearing voices too And I'm more cut up than you
