

3 Bottles of Wine

Left Alone

She lives a life of pain destruction and of crime
And everyday she polished off 3 bottles of red wine
Someday soon I'm gonna fly away
Cause I'm living all alone and I Love turned to hate
Hate turned to crime
And pain stood looking on
Laughing on the sidelines
Someday soon I'm gonna fly away
Cause I'm living all alone and I'll find my way
She lives a life where everyday she bleeds Ohhh
A million miles away
And she's tired of being alone and I
Ohhh
A million miles away
And she's tired of being alone and I
Ohhh
A million miles away
And she's tired of being alone and I
Ohhh
A million miles away
Pain Simple things ain't simple to me
And this loneliness won't set me free
Someday soon I'm gonna fly away
Cause I'm living all alone and I Round and round and round she always goes
And bottles tell her what she needs to know
She'll cut and cut if the bottle says bleed
And she hates being alone and I'll find my way
She lives a life where everyday she bleeds Ohhh
A million miles away
And she's tired of being alone and I
Ohhh
A million miles away
And she's tired of being alone and I
Ohhh
A million miles away
And she's tired of being alone and I
Ohhh
A million miles away
Pain She don't wanna live forever cause life has no pleasure

And soon enough she will start to rotOhhh

A million miles away

And she's tired of being alone and I

Ohhh

A million miles away

And she's tired of being alone and I

Ohhh

A million miles away

And she's tired of being alone and I

Ohhh

A million miles away

PainShe don't wanna live forever cause life has no pleasure

And soon enough she will start to rot
