How Do I Tell Her

R. Kelly

How do I tell her that I'm going away?
When I know that she'll be begging me to stay
And how do I tell her that the time has come to part?
When she's, she's gonna take it so hardI don't wanna break her heart
I don't wanna see her cry, no
'Cause I promised her forever
That I'd be by her side soSo how do I tell her, how do I tell her
Tell her goodbye? Oh yeahHow do I tell her that my path has gone and changed?
When I know that her heart won't be able to stand the pain, oh no
And how do I tell her that I'm moving on with my life
When she's just gonna break down and die, ohI don't wanna break her heart, no
I don't wanna see her cry, no
When I promised the girl forever
I'd be by her side soSo how do I tell her
Tell her, tell her goodbye? Oh yeah, whoaListen, she's been forever faithful, honest and true, yes, she has
My God, this has gotta be the worst thing that I ever had to do
How, how, how, how, how, how?How do I tell her, oh, oh, that the time has come to part?
When I know that she's gonna take it so very hard, yes, she isSaid, I don't wanna break her heart
I don't wanna see the little girl cry
When I promised her forever, oh, oh
That I'd be by her sideHow do I tell her
Tell her, tell her goodbye, bye, bye, bye?
Oh baby, bye and whoaHow, how do I tell her?
How do I tell her goodbye, baby
Won't somebody tell me
How do I tell the girlBye, bye baby, bye, bye baby
Bye, bye baby, bye, bye baby
Bye, bye baby, bye, bye baby
Bye, bye baby, bye, bye baby, ooh
