All I Really Want

Tim Timmons

All I really want is, All I really want is You
All I really want is, All I really want is You
You are welcome to come have Your way
You are welcome to move in this place
Take over my heart, Take over my song
Take over my life, Spirit of God
You are welcome to come have Your way so that
All I really want is, All I really want is You
All I really want is, All I really want is You
Be the one I seek, be the one I'm holding to
So that all I really want is, All I really want is You
You are welcome to come have Your way
You are welcome to move in this place
Take over my heart, Take over my song
Take over my life, Spirit of God
You are welcome to come have Your way so that
All I really want is, All I really want is You
All I really want is, All I really want is You
Be the one I seek, be the one I'm holding to
So that all I really want is, All I really want is You
Search and know my anxious heart
I'm wide open, I'm wide, wide open
Light up every restless part
I'm wide open, I'm wide, wide open
Search and know my anxious heart
I'm wide open, I'm wide, wide open
Light up every restless part
I'm wide open, I'm wide, wide open
All I really want is, All I really want is You
All I really want is, All I really want is You
Be the one I seek, be the one I'm holding to
So that all I really want is, All I really want is
You
