Alexz Johnson

Am I another casualty?
In the battle you're fighting?
You're your own worst enemy
At war with yourself but you can't see And I can't stand to watch your comet comin' fast
Everywhere you go it seems lightenin' strikes and then you crash
I don't know how you do it, it always ends the same
Everywhere you go it seems lightenin' strikes but there's no rain, no rain Feel like you're movin' in slow motion
And you don't know where you're going
You tried it all and it's too boring
Tighten up your grip 'cause it's a long way down And I can't stand to watch your comet comin' fast
Everywhere you go it seems this lightenin' strikes and then you crash
I don't know how you do it, it always ends the same,
Everywhere you go it seems lightenin' strikes but there's no rain Watchin' you slip away
It's getting harder everyday
When you're comin' down like a hurricane
I can't stand to see you in pain
So I just look away I can't stand to watch our comet comin' fast
Everywhere you go it seems lightenin' strikes and then you crash
I don't know how you do it, it always ends the same
Everywhere you go it seems lightenin' strikes but there's no rain, no rain No rain, no rain
No rain, no rain
No rain, no rain
No rain, no rain
No rain, no rain
Lightenin' strikes but there's no rain
No rain, no rain
