Morals

Iceage

These arms they never reach Far enough These shoulders never strike wide enough These teeth they never cut Deep enough in My skin To be someone like you Unable to face basal demands To be someone like you Unable to carry Life's weightBroken promise Where's your morals In this cursed realm Where hides JesusIf I could Leave my body then I would Bleed into a lake Dashing away DisappearWhere's your morals Where's your morals Where's your morals Where's your morals
