

You Better Run

Roy Rogers

Whatcha tryin' a do to my heart?
Whatcha tryin' a do to my heart?
 You go around tellin' lies
And now you want to compromise
 Whatcha tryin' a do to my heart?
And you better run, you better hide
You better leave from my sight, yeah
 Whatcha tryin' a do to my soul?
 Whatcha tryin' a do to my soul?
Well, everything I had was yours
And now I'm closin' all the doors
 Whatcha tryin' a do to my soul?
And you better run, you better hide
You better leave from my sight, yeah
 I love you oh, I love you so
 Can't you see it? Don't you know?
 I can't stand your alibis
Your tellin' lies, you drive me wild, yeah
I said, what are ya tryin' a do to my head?
 Whatcha tryin' a do to my head?
 Well, now I've gotta draw the line
'Cause you ain't gonna take my mind
 What are ya tryin' a do to my head?
 You better run, you better hide
 You better leave from my sight
 You better run, you better hide
 You better leave from my sight
 Let me go, yeah
I said go away, and leave me alone
 I can't stand you no more
