Lessdmv - Epitaph

I'm done of this sentimental things which says what's wrong and what's right now I have found you, my wicked world and you are gonna bring me to my crown
I feel alive inside
I feel alive inside

I'm beyond from all this broken things that make us blind to live my life from the sadness in the unspoken words that makes us feel so insane

I'm beyond from lights and shadows looking for the grave I came from but the fire which leads my blood is what gonna take me to the throne
I feel alive inside
I feel alive inside

I'm beyond from all this broken things that make
from the sadness in the unpoken words that makes us feel so insane

No, I won't wait a single second till the end of my dreams have become into my wounds
'cause I'm bulding an empire
I came from death and I'll stay here forever no one can bring me down because I'm the ocean and I'm stronger than ever
I'm the power I'm the power I am
I'm the power I'm the power I am

'cause i'm bulding an empire
I came from death and I'll stay here forever
no one can bring me down because
I'm the fire I'm the fire I am
I'm the fire I'm the fire I am
