Sink In

Sink In
By Byron RIce

Cause' I've seen a new horizon
It gets brighter every day
When a brother loves a brother
Even though he's gay

And I'll say what i need to say
You'll hear what you need to hear
But don't be afraid to let it all sink in
I'll be here my friend

Don't get this twisted
I've said it all before
We need to learn to love each other
And show it more
Cause' I'm tired of always fighting
Over who I'll love or who I'll raise
Don't you know that all that anger
Only teaches Love to hate
And I'll say what i need to say
You'll hear what you need to hear
But don't be afraid to let it all sink in
I'll be here my friend

But don't be afraid to let it all sink in
I'll be here my friend
Till the very end.
