Rise Again

Joshua Kadison

Rise Again- Joshua Kadison

Wish I had some kind of crystal ball
So I could wave my hands and show you it all
But I donâ€™t know what tomorrow will bring
I donâ€™t know too much of anything
But I know Iâ€™m your friend
And I'm grateful to be
Right here to hold you
And help you to see
That love is gonna rise again
Love is gonna rise again
Some way somehow
Though itâ€™s hard to believe now
Love is gonna rise again
Love is rise again
I wish that I could read the lines on your palm
I wish I had a magic wand
So I could make it all better again
But Iâ€™m just me and I am your friend
And I know your mine
And Iâ€™m grateful for you
Right here to hold me
And to help remember the truth
That love is gonna rise again, Love is gonna rise again
Someway somehow though itâ€™s hard to believe now
Love is gonna rise again
Love is gonna rise again
You know you can feel what I am saying is real
Rise again, rise again, love is gonna rise again
You know you can feel what Iâ€™m saying is real
Rise again, rise again, love is gonna rise again
You know you can feel what Iâ€™m saying is real
Rise again, rise again, love is gonna rise again
