Yeah, I let you in to the organization (fucking organization)
I thought you could be trusted (I thought you could be fucking trusted)
You could have had anything
(You could have had anything)
How could you betray the family Loyalty is everything (every fucking thing)
You broke the rules (you broke the fucking rules) its a code we live by there's no turning back now (welcome to this fucking piece of shit)[Chorus][2X]Who can you trust to watch your back
Who can you trust when the enemy comes strapped Who can I trust in this time of greed Who can I trust to look out for me (hey)[Silkk the Shocker]How could ya, when you did it you lost me
I would of gave you the world so how could you cross me I break bread with my TRU on watch my friends and foes toast hennesy trust nobody keep my enemies close now all the time I just wanted wanted to be free and all the time I tried to help you just wanted to be me sometimes I just wanna take clips and go to war all on my own trusting my TRU niggas and my TRU brothers and I don't wanna got tat on my own now if it was mine it was yours if I had it you had it you told me watch my front you gone watch my back I did that you stabbed me nigga be snitchin' to the cops send me to the penitentiary even if its packed but just mention me to my enemies the ones that stabbed me in the back[Chorus][2X]I wonder who can I trust when I out bustin' blastin' my guns I wonder who can I trust to hop when I'm on the run
I wonder who can I trust to hold my last piece of stash

I wonder who can I trust to hang with my best piece of ass
I knew it was fate by the day when I looked in his eyes I get beside love is trust some nigga came by I heard he workin' with them people nigga kicked in my door got me facin' all kinds fucked up charges got me sittin' in court (everybody rise)
take my last stand its my last chance but take that warrant to my last dance before they sentence me I through 'em in the court room and hollered (its ok) Looked 'em in his eyes and wispered you're a coward[Chorus][2X][People talking]D.E.A. boy (freeze get on the fucking ground and don't move) what part of the game is this part of the game where the fat lady sings boy its over for you I'm just sittin' here tryin' to make money not no 'mo that shits over charge it to the game how the fuck ya'll found out who told ya'll it was your homey partner[Silkk]Who can you trust (haha) Who can you trust
