Chevelle

I paid you, squeaky wheel
Go try healing this too
That said, you're full of it
On a bend, beg to fail
Properly holding your grudge
That said, you're full of shit
Try accepting this
Why not face today
Forever one to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy
End it all within
Why not face today
Forever one to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy
End it all within
Last burned, well grab a pen
For the forth and unknown
Hated work, but loved the scene
The somber came juxtaposed
All the subtleness of
A downed plane, retreat again
Try accepting this
Why not face today
Forever one to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy
End it all within
Why not face today
Forever one to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy
End it all within
If only the crying could heal
I'd sell my left arm to buy passion
If only apologies worked
I could find some reasons
Why maybe you wouldn't be so ill
So ill, sorry your soul,
Is so fucking shallow
It's creeping outside, outside of it's hole
It's trying to see, say it,

Fake this reality
Why not face today
Forever one to crawl out
Fade out next to lazy
End it all within
Why not face today
Forever one to crawl out
End it all within
Why not face today
Why not face today
Why not face today
