In Retrospect

Textbook Traitors

Go ahead and knock me out
It hurts so good, since you're all I've got
The last thing that you said to me
Was that you and I were meant to beHold my hand and check my pulse
Revive me with just one touch
You'll never want to end this
Go ahead and knock me out
It hurts so good, since you're all I've gotNo hospital's gonna save you from
A broken heart, a broken heart
No arms could reach you and your regrets
Sweet dreams on your last nightI hold your hand and check your pulse
You're already out cold on the floor
Go ahead and knock me out
It hurts so good since, since you're all that I've gotNo hospital's gonna save you from
A broken heart, a broken heart
No arms could reach you and your regrets
I need you in my lifeSo do this to yourself, you're the only thing I've got
And the only one I want is never gonna stop
She's killing herself to sleep
Sweet dreams and rest in peace
