

You Don't Know Where Your Interest Lies

Eron Falbo

You don't know that you love me,
You don't know, but I know that you do.
You may think you're above me, yeah,
But what you think isn't always true. Don't try to debate me,
You should know that I'm womanly wise.
Still you try to hallucinate me,
You don't know where your interest lies.
No, you don't know where your interest lies. You don't begin to comprehend.
You're just a game that I like to play.
You may think that we're friends, alright,
But I won't let friendship get in my way.
No, I won't let friendship get in my way. Indications indicate,
Running the same riff will turn you around.
Obviously you're going to blow it,
'Cause you don't know it. You don't know that you love me.
You don't know, but I know that you do.
You may think you're above me, yeah,
But what you think isn't always true.
'Cause, you don't know where your interest lies. No, you don't know where your interest lies.
You don't know where your interest lies.
