Punching Out

Jade Ewen

Yeah Yeah
oh wohI never thought I would find anybody like you, yeah
I never open my mind to anybody like you
For ever thinking you and I seen at your side
Been your girl and sharing all your pride
I never thought I could find anybody like youBeen picking up your shirt making you dinner
Telling myself yes sir this boy's a winner
But I never thought for one second it would be you beggin'
For me to come on home oh babyCHORUS:Boy, I will not be your waitress
Clean up your own mess
You show the progress
I ain't your mama
And I'm not, not gonna
I've made up my mind
Not, not gonna spend anymore time with you
Not gonna wait for you
Had so much faith in you
I'm so ashamed of you
You better know it
I am not, not gonna bet
Never was any doubt
See, baby I'm punching outI did all that I could to make you notice me there, oh
Did my all to make you realize how much I can
I've been ------- every word you say
Lying in my bed
Thinking I was lucky messing with my head
Yeah, I did all that I could to make you notice me thereThe way I had you back in all you do
Loving you truly
Looking out for you
Boy did you boo me
But I never thought for one minute
That I was lost in it
I got myself on tracking
You should knowCHORUS:I will not be your waitress
Clean up your own mess
You show the progress
I ain't your mama
And I'm not, not gonna
I've made up my mind

Not, not gonna spend anymore time with you
Not gonna wait for you
Had so much faith in you
I'm so ashamed of you
You better know it
I am not, not gonna bet
Never was any doubt
See, baby I'm punching outBeen picking up your shirt making you dinner
Telling myself yes sir this boy is a winner
For me to come on home oh babyCHORUS:Boy, I will not be your waitress
Clean up your own mess
I've made up my mind
Not, not gonna spend anymore time with you
I'm so ashamed of you
You better know it
Never was any doubt
See, baby I'm punching outI will not be your waitress
Clean up your own mess
I ain't your mama
I've made up my mind
Not, not gonna spend anymore time with you
Not gonna wait for you
Had so much faith in you
I'm so ashamed of you
You better know it
Never was any doubt
See, baby I'm punching out
