This Is How It Feels

Pleasurehouse

Through my window everything looks so, small
Thoughts go round, in my head, makes me wanna scream
Heaven is fading out, and so are we
Well, whatever, you were right I wish that I could cry
This is how it feels, to be lonely
This is how it feels, to be lonely
Steadying dark, steadying heart is so far away from me
Well missing me is what I want, where did everything go wrong
Song on the radio, makes me remember
First time I saw you, where did everything go wrong
This is how it feels, to be lonely
This is how it feels, to be lonely
Cold breeze, woke me up
I turned around, I wanted to reach you
Your eyes were full of tears, I couldn't move
I tried to speak, I really tried to listen
Then we made love with our eyes closed
Giving promises, eternal love
We're stuck in our dreams, we both know it
Is this how it feels to be in love
This is how it feels, to be lonely
This is how it feels, to be lonely
This is how it feels, to be lonely
This is how it feels, to be lonely
