Disquiet

Stavesacre

Deep inside the folds of a carefully constructed tombThis fear to fail fear to feel
Dreams of turned back time in the safety of a second room
Build up the walls and lick the wounds
Retreat to isolation
Comes a bullet numb and aloneThere was one, there was one
This quietDisquieter
And pulling back again
Reaching out
This quiet
Reaching out
DisquieterAnd pulling back again
Turn the sharp edge inward to the pain behind the self defense
He is me and I can't breathe I want to leave and then I want againThis fear to fail fear to feel
But from some quiet stillness come these waves that shake my world apart
My walls come down exposing me to the sunAnd there was none, there was noneThis quiet
Reaching out
Disquieter
And pulling back again
This quiet
Disquieter
Reaching outAnd pulling back again
Reaching out and pulling back again
If the sun shines on me and I get burned can I return if it hurts
Will the sun burn? BurnIf the sun shines on me and I get burned can I return if it hurts
