

The Wizard (Live At Jo's Public Theatre NYC)

Bat for Lashes

Doing the mess around
Push me down into the ground
Taste the hands that drink my bodyFight me in the dark
Wrestle your bones over mine
Into our moonless march come the wizardCome, the wizard comes
The wizard comes
The wizard comes
The wizard comesWants to feel you shake and shooting
He will be our leader
Wants to feel you shake and shooting
He will be our leaderTrembling midnight lands
I travel with the wizard
Drink his blood and he's our leaderBreath songs in my head
Slow arrow flies, are burning
And the trouble we possess
While the sunshine goes on sleeping
The sunshineWants to feel you shake and shooting
He will be our leader
Wants to feel you shake and shooting
He will be our leaderWants to feel you shake and shooting
He will be our leader
Wants to feel you shake and shooting
He will be our leader
