

Glass

James Shearman

I wonder why?
Why? Why? Why? Why?
Why? Why? Why? Why?
If I had a dime for every time
 You walked away
 I could afford to not give a shit
 And buy a drink and drown the day
 But your pockets, they are empty, yeah
 And mine are times two
 So why not make an about face
 And accept the love I send to you?
 You're never gonna be content if you don't try
 Try to see outside your line
 There you go, you did it again
 You act as if there's blinders on your eyes
 Should I apologize?
If what I say burns your ears and stains your eyes
 Or did I crack your shell?
When it falls away, you'll see we exist as well
 Like a bottle with the cork stuck
 Your true ingredients trapped up inside
Through the cloudy glass we catch a glimpse of you
 I guess the hard shell represents your pride
 Oh, if only it could be different
 We could uncover the you, you deny
 Between two, a small discrepancy

 One complicates and one simplifies
You're never gonna be content if you don't try
 Try to see outside your line
 There you go, you did it again
 You act as if there's blinders on your eyes
 Should I apologize?
If what I say burns your ears and stains your eyes
 Or did I crack your shell?
When it falls away, you'll see we exist as well
 There, there you go, there you, there you go
 Looks, looks good
 Take those fucking blinders off your eyes

So if I had a dime for every time
You walked away
You could bet your bottom dollar that
I'd be filthy rich by noon today
Should I apologize?
If what I say burns your ears and stains your eyes
Or did I crack your shell?
When it falls away, you'll see we exist as well
Should I apologize?
If what I say burns your ears and stains your eyes
Or did I crack your shell?
When it falls away, you'll see we exist as well
