

Pelicans

Birds of Chicago

I am a pelican in the eye of a hurricane Nothing good behind me up ahead is pain
You are a pelican in the eye of a hurricane
And you're mystified that you made it to this day So let's drift awhile and feel the sun
And oh by god you'll know my love
And I will know your love There were too many wolves
There were not enough wolves
Oh it's all for nothing that's a feeling I never shook
I believe in harmony oh though I've never seen it if my heart is beating you know I'm still dreaming
So let's drift awhile... What's been done to you no I can't undo
All that pain well it's part of you
But it never poisoned you never turned you numb
Seeing how this world gets its doing done So let's drift awhile...
Here's one for the ragged beauties for the wounded swans
For the Don Quixotes oh you're not too far gone
These few precious days I'm 'a spend with you
It's not all over yet no baby blue So let's drift awhile....
