

Sun Red Sky Blue

Kenna

Underneath your skin again
Right below your innocence
I can tell your hesitance

Let me heal the heart of it, my love
Give me your sun red, sky blue
Love, I'm falling into you

Under a sun red, sky blue
I see through you in this life
Your fingertips have stories fading

I believed I taken flight with wings of wax and heart of ice

Melted by your blessed eyes, angel hear my cries
Give me your sun red, sky blue
Love, I'm falling into you
Under a sun red, sky blue

I'm giving into you
Raise your eyes, leave blame in the past world
And heaven is in mind and you're here for something more
It's 11:59 and I'm still believing

Yeah, I'm still believing
So give me your sun red, sky blue
Love, I'm falling into you
Under the sun red, sky blue

Love, I'm giving into you
I'm giving into you
I'm falling into you

Sun red, sky blue
I'm falling into you
Giving into you

Moving back to you
Sun red, sky blue
I'm giving into you
