I'm All Smiles

Bill Evans

I'm all smiles, darlin'
You'd be too
If you knew, darlin'
All of the smiles were for youI'm all chills, darlin'
Through and through
But my cold hands, darlin'
Warm to the touch of youRain hasn't fallen for days now
But rainbows are fillin' the skies
My heart must have painted those rainbows
Shinin' before my eyesCan't you tell that I'm in love, darlin'?
Deep and true, with guess who, darlin'Someone I die for Beg steal or lie for
Eat humble pie for Someone to fly
To the sun, moon and sky for Someone to live for
To love with and cry for
And that someone is you
