

My Reason

Agathocles

Why does everything good - always comes too late?
Is it to justify my - reason to hate?
Abolishment of all respect, it's only give or take!
This all strengthens my - reason to hate
Silence yourself, words are trivial.
Without a meaning they're forgetable.
Your detachment shows this to me.
I'll never forget, all my reasons!
