And I'll laugh back in your face
Preach me your religion
If you're dumb enough to pray I tried to make a change to get a better way
To make a little more money
I tried to get away to see if I could stay
And look what I became, honey What is it I'm after, searching for disaster?
Watching my whole life flash in front of my eyes
We've been given answers, still we're walking cancers
Dressed up as a life Get all your news from a corporate company
Trade in your opinion for a gallon of gasoline, go! Well, I tried to get away to see if I could stay
And look what I became, honey What is it I'm after, searching for disaster?
Watching my whole life flash in front of my eyes
We've been given answers, still we're walking cancers
Dressed up as a life, dressed up as a life, dressed up as a life This life is a waste of life
This life is a * lie What is it I'm after, searching for disaster?
Watching my whole life flash in front of my eyes
We've been given answers, still we're walking cancers
Dressed up as a life, dressed up as a life, dressed up as a life, ****
Dressed up as
