

Trailer

Mudcrutch

I graduated high school
I bought her a trailer
In a little park by the side of the road
I coulda had the Army,
I coulda had the Navy
But no, I had to go for,
a mobile home
Yes, I gave it all to you, babe
All to you and that trailer, too, babe
I kept up with my interest,
I kept up my payments
She never said goodbye,
I never asked why
Man, we used to dance to Lynyrd Skynyrd
Aaaw, she used to look so good at times
Yes, I gave it all to you, babe
Wasn't room in that trailer for two, babe.
I can't find a band-aid that gives me an answer That shines any light on the way things went
I get by on my own time,
I ain't cut out for working
I ain't cut out for nothing, it pays my rent
I guess, I gave it all to you, babe
All to you, and that trailer, too, babe...O-oooh...
