

Changing World

Kutless

I thought I had it all under control
I thought my fate was still in my hands
All of my plans were firmly set
By the words that I say I forgot how quickly things can change
Now my vision cannot be the same My life is not what I thought
I'm not where I planned to be
Though something's gone
There's nothing wrong
With my changing world Though something's gone
There's nothing wrong
With my changing world, in my world I need to let go of my destiny
I need to trust in things unseen
I believe in having faith
Though I yield my control I forgot how quickly things can change
Now my vision cannot be the same My life is not what I thought
I'm not where I planned to be
Though something's gone
There's nothing wrong
With my changing world Though something's gone
There's nothing wrong
With my changing world, in my world I'm embracing all of my fears
I am watching them turn to delight
The very fears which were gripping my mind
Are now the hands shaping and sculpting my dreams My life is not what I thought
I'm not where I planned to be
Though something's gone
There's nothing wrong
With my changing world Though something's gone
There's nothing wrong
With my changing world In my world
In my changing world
In my world
In my changing world
