The Goonz

When the liars build their castles out of me we all say that we're alive and free my disposition makes me wonder "what's for me?"
and you'll never get ahead with honesty if there's no way out of this we'll have a bigger problem I'll never be you I don't want to be a liar
I don't want to be a thief
I don't want to be your dealer
I just want to live for me
