I'm Not Afraid

Face to Face

Well, I didn't want a second chance
Now that's exactly where I am
Back where I didn't want to be
Back where I knew, you'd find me out, out, outI've never been afraid of you
And I never will admit the truth
And I know there's something I can doWell, I'm not afraid to face myself
But is it me or something else?
Makes me exactly what I am
That's something I will always doubt, doubt, doubtI've never been afraid of you
I never will admit the truth
I know there's something I can doI've never been afraid of you
I never will admit the truth
I know there's something I can do
