

You Melt the Madness

Jericho Road

Somedays it feels like I am walking through a storm
A strong wind blowing at my heart
I long for shelter, only you can give me Lord
You are all I need
'Cause you're the Prince of Peace

(Chorus)

You melt the madness
You calm the fear inside of me
when the world is spinning out of control
You stop the struggle
Lord it's your love that brings sweet rest to my soul
And my heart knows

You melt the madness
You melt the madness

It seems this crazy world is never going to change
So Lord i want you to change me
And in the chaos, I'll be calling out your name
Won't you set me free with your serenity

(Chorus)

Come what may no matter what I face
I'll be still and know that you are God

(Chorus)

You melt the madness
You melt the madness
You melt the madness
You melt the madness
