Fearless

Hypocrisy

I don't care what you need, I only do it to please me
There's no excuses from my point-of-view
You're pulling me left and right
I've had it up to here, it's making me sick to see you aliveEnough of conspiracy
'Cause you cannot win
Like a bomb I release my anger
I'll be peeling your skinI'm gonna walk away
You wont be holding me back
I'm not afraid of you
So just get out of my wayI'll destroy your life
'Cause you were pulling me down
You reached the end of the road
So just get out of my way
So just get out of my wayBe my enemy, I'll turn your life into dust
Take everything you've become
Just go back where you've come from
And disappear from here
Your life has taken a turn for the worseEnough of conspiracy
'Cause you cannot win
Like a bomb I release my anger
I'll be peeling your skinLike a bomb I release my anger
I'll be peeling your skinI'm gonna walk away
You wont be holding me back
I'm not afraid of you
So just get out of my wayI'll destroy your life
'Cause you were pulling me down
You reached the end of the road
So just get out of my wayI'm gonna walk away
You wont be holding me back
I'm not afraid of you
So just get out of my wayI'll destroy your life
'Cause you were pulling me down
You reached the end of the road
So just get out of my wayI know your kind
I've tasted before
You spitting out all of your lies
I push you up against the wallI'm gonna walk away
You wont be holding me back
I'm not afraid of you

So just get out of my wayI'll destroy your life
'Cause you were pulling me down
You reached the end of the road
So just get out of my wayI'm gonna walk away
You wont be holding me back
I'm not afraid of you
So just get out of my wayI'll destroy your life
'Cause you were pulling me down
You reached the end of the road
So just get out of my way
